

DAN DOKOVIC | SIOR

PRINCIPAL

PROFESSIONAL BIO

Dan Dokovic is a Co-Founder and Principal of Intelica CRE™, Bamboo Equity Partners™ and Oakline Studio™. Dan's primary responsibilities include providing overall leadership and managing the efforts of the organizations. In addition to his management duties, he works on engagements across the company including acquisitions, strategic planning, project development, portfolio optimization and real estate technologies. Dan concentrates his services on the healthcare industry and corporate real estate operations and optimization. He provides real estate and business strategies to a broad range of entities including healthcare systems and providers, financial institutions, manufacturers, pharmaceutical companies and educational institutions.

Prior to Intelica, Dan specialized in Corporate Solutions providing outsourced corporate real estate services to Fortune 500 firms. He brings thirteen years of corporate and institutional asset management for organizations such as TA Realty, Edward Jones, Cognizant and Sun Life Financial.

When Dan is not in the office, he enjoys spending time with his wife and two sons. He is a big St. Louis Cardinals and Blues fan and enjoys hanging out by his pool.
