

TYLER HYDE

ASSOCIATE | BROKERAGE

PROFESSIONAL BIO

Tyler Hyde joined Intelica CRE™ in the summer of 2019 as an Associate Broker. Tyler is a graduate of Middle Tennessee State University, and was a pitcher for the MTSU baseball team. After graduation, Tyler played independent minor league baseball for the Frontier League's Rockford Riverhawks, and later earned a Master's degree from Lindenwood University.

At Intelica, Tyler focuses on retail, industrial, and office, specializing in tenant and landlord representation. Prior to joining Intelica, Tyler spent six years in progressive roles with Coca-Cola. During his six years with Coke, Tyler managed retail/on premise, convenience-retail, drug/value, and large grocery chains like Walmart, Dierbergs Markets and Schnucks.

Tyler is a native of St. Louis, where family has been a staple in the foodservice/restaurant industry since the 1950's. His grandfather, Paul Savage, started AA Hotel and Restaurant on Park Avenue in downtown St. Louis in 1955, renamed "Savage Foods" in 2002. Savage Foods operates today under the US Foodservice umbrella. Tyler's family remains heavily involved in the foodservice industry with both his father, Mike Hyde, and wife, Jessica Hyde, at Kuna Foodservice in Dupon, IL.

Tyler and his wife Jessica are proud parents to two boys, three-year-old Jackson and one-year-old Henry. Tyler currently volunteers for the National Football Foundation's annual Paul Savage Sr. Memorial Golf Tournament.

EDUCATION

Middle Tennessee State University
B.S. in Business Education,
minor in Business Administration

Lindenwood University
M.A. in Sport Management

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Licensed Broker - Missouri
Saint Louis Association of Realtors
Missouri Realtor Association

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

National Football Foundation's Paul Savage Memorial Golf Tournament - volunteer

CONTACT

C 314.607.2344
T 314.744.8984
thyde@intcre.com