

DUSTON COOPER

MAINTENANCE TECHNICIAN

PROFESSIONAL BIO

Duston Cooper is a Maintenance Technician at Intelica CRE. In his position, he is responsible for ensuring property grounds and common areas are always clean and well lit, working with tenants when problems arise and working with his team to ensure tenants receive the best possible service.

Prior to Intelica, Duston owned and operated Keeping It Clean, a residential and commercial cleaning company.

Duston is a new father of a beautiful baby girl, Kali, with his life partner, Krystal. They live in South City with two dogs, Madeline and Zara. Most of their days consist of walks around the neighborhood, ABCs, and 123s. When they aren't reading books with Kali, they "binge Netflix like most parents their age!"
