VICE PRESIDENT | OPERATIONS

PROFESSIONAL BIO

Theresa Bayer is the Vice President of Operations at Intelica CRE™. In this role, Theresa oversees the operations activities of the company, ensuring the development and implementation of strategy, structure and processes to meet the current and future needs of the organization.

Before working at Intelica, Theresa worked for Cushman & Wakefield for five years as an Account Executive. She was responsible for real estate services for corporate clients who had large, geographically dispersed portfolios. She oversaw real estate functions including leasing, design and construction, portfolio administration and facilities management. Prior to Cushman & Wakefield, she worked as the Director of Global Operations for SIRVA Worldwide and was responsible for talent management and team operations for the international teams based in the US.

When she is not working, Theresa enjoys trail running, skiing, SCUBA diving, traveling and kayaking. Theresa is married with two kids along with two dogs and a cat. They spend time at their family cabin in southern Missouri, entertaining and enjoying the beauty of the Ozark Mountains.
